

THE SPHERES OF INFLUENCE & MARKETPLACE

Empowering Leaders: SALT Class of 2026 Celebrates Graduation

The Sundoulos Africa Leadership Training (SALT) continues to serve as a vital discipleship tool, dedicated to sharpening, adjusting, and perfecting the leadership skills of both current and aspiring leaders across the marketplace. Every year, Intercessors for Uganda organizes this intensive 23-module course. It is made available both online and in-person, tailored to the specific needs of requesting entities seeking to impact their professional environments.

This year's journey culminated in a colorful graduation ceremony on Saturday, September 19th, hosted at the beautiful Convenient Park in Kulambiro.

We are thrilled to celebrate the 34 graduates who successfully completed the rigorous training.

Mountain Mandate 2.0: Strategic Roadmaps for Societal Transformation

Following the re-launch of the Mountain activities in May 2026, the Spheres of Influence and Marketplace leadership have rolled out strategic roadmaps to drive meaningful impact. Weekly Mountain Fellowships are actively ongoing to mobilize, equip, and empower members with the precise knowledge and skills needed to constructively influence their respective spheres. Each specific mountain—Family, Business, Governance, Faith, Education, Media, and Celebration—now has dedicated days throughout the week for these fellowships.

Looking Ahead: National Prayer Conference 2027

Planning is already well underway for the National Prayer Conference (NPC) 2027. In a strategic move to ensure meticulous execution, the Mountains have been tasked with mobilizing, managing, and strategizing for the upcoming conference many months ahead of schedule. Every Mountain has been assigned a specific departmental focus and will present a formal progress report by April 30, 2027.

Marketplace Fellowships: Sustaining Prayer Altars in the Workplace

The Marketplace Fellowship remains a cornerstone ministry of Intercessors for Uganda, extending spiritual covering directly into public and private institutions. By strengthening, encouraging, and equipping working professionals, these fellowships keep spiritual altars effective and empower believers to serve as worthy ambassadors of the Kingdom of God.

Our fellowship network continues to thrive across various strategic sectors:

- MTN Marketplace Fellowship: Meeting quarterly for Lunch Hour fellowships, as well as capitalising on spontaneous opportunities to gather.
- Rehabilitation Centers: Bringing hope and spiritual support to the Breakfree Center in Bwebajja and the Tranquil Center in Kajjansi.
- Leadership Code Tribunal: Hosting regular monthly fellowships.
- Eagle Air Fellowship: Conducting weekly reviews of the Business School of the Word (BSOW) marketplace discipleship tool, alongside dedicated monthly prayer sessions.
- Insurance Regulatory Authority: Gathering for intentional prayer and fellowship on designated days at the Lumumba Avenue offices.
- Nation Media Group: Maintaining consistent weekly prayer altars.

The numbers keep growing...

OFFICE OF THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Members, Partners, and Friends,

On behalf of the Secretariat, I would like to express our profound gratitude for the opportunity to serve God's eternal purposes through Intercessors for Uganda (IFU) at such a strategic time as this.

Over the past three months, marking the first quarter of the financial year 2026, God has faithfully enabled us to successfully execute key structural milestones. Most notably, we celebrated the hosting of our Annual General Meeting (AGM) on August 15, 2026, followed closely by the powerful National Prayer Conference (NPC) from September 1 to 4, 2026. Furthermore, the SALT Class of 2026 graduation was successfully concluded on Saturday 19th September 2026, sending forth a new cohort of marketplace disciples. Simultaneously, we are blessed to report that the construction of our new Ministry Headquarters at Masooli has officially commenced, with the foundational framework now rapidly nearing completion.

Forging Ahead: Upcoming Corporate Priorities

- Continuation of Infrastructure Development: Advancing the next phase of structural masonry and roofing works at our Masooli Headquarters.
- Strategic Regional Visitations: Executing structured apostolic mobilisations across the seven regions of IFU.
- End-of-Year get together fellowship: Convening members, partners, and friends for a corporate thanksgiving early December 2026.
- The Vision 2020 Conference: Preparing for our premier strategic assembly scheduled for January 4–8, 2027.

To fully actualize these strategic kingdom mandates, we covet your continued partnership. Your unceasing prayer coverage and consistent financial support remain vital fuels for the Secretariat's operations. As we each stand firmly in the specific assignments where God has stationed us—whether within our families, our businesses, our local churches, or our respective professional workplaces—I am compelled to remind you that heaven is depending on us to do whatever it takes to manifest His Kingdom in our spheres/world.

Below, I share a vital message of exhortation and encouragement to guide our collective execution in this upcoming season.

In His Gracious Service,
Executive Director
Intercessors for Uganda

*"Ask of Me, and I will give You the nations for Your inheritance, and the ends of the earth for Your possession."
Psalm 2:8 (NKJV)*

IT'S YOUR TURN, YOUR WALL

INTERCESSORS FOR UGANDA

In the Lango sub-region of Uganda, where I hail from, manhood was historically defined by, among other things, the hunt. While seasonal hunting was routine, the ultimate test came when a wild beast—a leopard or buffalo—invaded the community. Men would strategically encircle the animal, cutting off every escape route. When the beast charged, those in its path dared not give way. To step aside and let it terrorize another homestead meant a lifetime of disgrace in village songs. Standing your ground and felling the beast earned you a legacy of courage.

Today, our forests are cleared, but more hazardous beasts terrorize our nation from within. Their names are corruption, immorality, open witchcraft, substance abuse and the like.

They ravage our homes, marketplaces, and even the Church. Like the hunters of old, God has stationed the Body of Christ strategically around Uganda. Yet, for too long, we have been mere commentators on this decadence.

We lament corruption at burials, recount evils during prayer meetings, and ask God to raise others to act.

We have mistaken prayer for passivity and spirituality for silence, failing to see that we often harbor or condone the very vices we decry.

"They will rebuild the ancient ruins, repairing cities destroyed long ago. They will revive them, though they have been deserted for many generations." Isaiah 61:4

God is calling for a turnaround. He does not want spectators; He wants courageous hunters and builders with the spirit of Nehemiah. Nehemiah wept because Jerusalem's broken walls left the city vulnerable to enemies. Today, Uganda's walls are broken—the walls of truth, family, justice, and stewardship.

Nehemiah Chapter 3 reveals the blueprint for restoration: every family arose to rebuild the broken wall "in front of their own house". When every individual takes responsibility for their immediate section, the entire wall is restored without gaps.

This is the call of the hour: It's your turn, your wall. God is not asking you to fix all of Uganda; He is asking you to fix what is in your docket:

- Parents: Your wall is your home. Build the family altar, model truth-telling, and stop being the breach through which profanity enters your lineage.
- Marketplace Professionals: Your wall is your desk, classroom, clinic, or counter. Demand the same integrity from yourself that you demand from Parliament. Print accurate receipts, grade fairly, offer jobs fairly and equitably, and reject bribes. That is your spear-throwing moment.

- Church Leaders: Your wall is your pulpit. We cannot eradicate witchcraft from the nation while manipulating congregants for money or excusing immorality in our private lives. Teach and model true godliness.

Never despise the smallness of your portion. The enemy wants you to believe your effort cannot change a nation, but 1 Corinthians 3:6-8 reminds us that while we plant or water, it is God who gives the increase. Your obedience triggers divine multiplication, and God will reward you according to your labor. The Spirit is stirring a remnant in Uganda today—men and women vowing that the beast will not pass through their section.

Heaven is composing songs, and the next generation is watching. Will they sing of a generation of believers who retreated, or one that stood, built, and hunted down evil with righteousness? The animal is charging, and the breach is directly in front of you. Stand your ground, build your section, and throw your spear. Uganda will be healed—one brick, one kill, one home, and one office at a time.

Thank you so much for your prayers and support. We still appeal for your continued support. You can stand with us in these ways:

1. Honour your outstanding pledge.
2. Make a fresh contribution or pledge (in cash or in kind – cement, sand, iron sheets, etc.)
3. Mobilize others – encourage a friend, family, institution or church to support.
4. Keep praying – for the building team and for the work to progress well and safely.

PRAYER DIRECTORATE & FAITH MOUNTAIN

Sustaining Prayer. Equipping Intercessors. Advancing God's Kingdom in Uganda.

The first quarter of 2026 was marked by sustained national prayer, strategic intercession, regional mobilisation, leadership development, and intensive preparations for the recent National Prayer Conference (NPC). The Prayer Directorate proactively continues to mobilise the Body of Christ to intercede for Uganda, strengthen territorial Houses of Prayer, oversee specialized Prayer Schools, and advance IFU's core vision of seeing the Kingdom of God established firmly across the nation, its land, its peoples, and its structural institutions.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS OF ACHIEVEMENTS

1. Sustained National Prayer and Strategic Intercession

The Directorate successfully coordinated daily national prayer operations, strategic prayer patrols, and highly targeted intercession sweeps. In July, a dedicated 10-Day National Transport Route Prayer Cover and a strategic Heavenly Court Session on 30th July were executed to directly address critical national concerns regarding road accidents. From mid August up to September 8th, national prayers were heavily sustained through the Uganda Jubilee Network (UJN) 50 Days of Prayer and Fasting, focusing on health in a broader context.

Intercessors for Uganda rallied Christians from all the seven regions, the international relations departments, the youth and the children to actively participate in the prayers.

Concurrently, the vital 6:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m. daily prayer meetings, alongside the foundational 24-hour prayer watch, unceasingly sustained critical intercession for national priorities, including the healthcare sector.

2. National Prayer Conference 2026

The National Prayer Conference, hosted under the profound theme "Virtue and Equity: The Nation's Bedrock" (Psalm 89:14), was successfully conducted and attracted an average attendance of approximately 300 delegates. Mobilisation efforts dynamically included all seven IFU regions, welcoming robust regional and international participation during the 24-hour National Praise and Worship sessions. A major milestone of this conference was the historic launch of the Buganda House of Prayer (BHOP), accompanied by an official resolution directing that the next two NPCs be strategically hosted in the Central Region.

Many aspects of the conference were highly appreciated by the delegates, especially the theme, the message delivered by the different speakers, the worship sessions and the medical camp conducted by the UJN team.

3. Training and Development of Intercessors

Spiritual capacity building remained a vital strategic priority through direct Prayer School, refresher modules, and foundational preparations for the planned Training of Trainers (TOT) programme. The intensive five-day virtual refresher training module conducted by Mrs. Sakhile Mawema (Prophetess) in August attracted an average of 250 intercessors. By September, the prayer schools being conducted scaled to: over 50 active learners at the Watoto Eastern Route, a cohort of 20 learners at the Agape Prayer School, and 27 learners at the Shekinah Christian International School. Simultaneously, preparations for the TOT advanced smoothly, with expert facilitators fully secured for the eight comprehensively planned technical training sessions.

4. Seasonal Prayer and Targeted Ministry

The Directorate seamlessly facilitated specialized New Moon and Full Moon prayer gatherings, strategic Tishrei seasonal prayer nights, and an unceasing 24-hour prayer watch during the highly significant 10 Days of Awe. Critical land redemption prayer ministry was conducted across Luwero, Mukono, and Buikwe, while vital prayer-on-location deployments engaged various other strategic institutional sites. Furthermore, intentional regional ministry visits to Katakwi and Soroti, alongside direct grassroots engagement with local churches and broader Christian networks, substantially strengthened kingdom relationships and anchored the structural growth of local prayer initiatives.

PRIORITIES FOR THE NEXT QUARTER

The ministry continued to grapple with limited financial resources, the registration of National Prayer Conference was below expectation, the attendance of various programmes like seasonal night of prayer, lunch time fellowships, has been low. To address these areas, the Directorate has outlined clear operational priorities for the next quarter:

- Resource Mobilisation: Initiate accelerated and early financial frameworks to secure consistent operational funding.
- Regional Coordination: Deepen structural oversight and communication pipelines across all seven regional networks.
- Targeted Communication: Deploy strategic messaging models to increase consistent stakeholder alignment and attendance.
- Stakeholder Engagement: Formulate systematic tracking and feedback mechanisms for Prayer Schools and Faith Mountain Ambassadors.
- Transport-Route Coverage: Expand and sustain tactical, continuous on-site intercession across national transport networks.
